NEWS FROM THE EXECUTIVE VICE

PRESIDENT

Limited space may still be available for the 2019 International trip. It is time to start planning for the 2019-2020 ski season. If you have destinations or preferred dates for next season, please contact the Executive Vice-President. Watch upcoming newsletters for information about next season. The LSSC trips for the 2018-2019 season included:

WESTERN SKI TRIPS

WINTER PARK, CO 12-27-2018 to -1-1 -2019

Trip Summary, by Roman Puchovsky, Trip Leader

The LSSC trip to Winter Park, CO welcomed the New Year. Eleven members participated in the trip – 9 adults and 2 children. The weather was quite cold; mid 20's in town and lows from zero to upper teens on the mountain.

Although there was hardly any snowfall during our stay, ample runs were open ranging from beginner to advanced. Despite a few of the bowls on the back side of the resort being closed, most expert skiers were able to get their fill of “steep and deep” skiing. My decision to go with Howard through trees proved to be an interesting (comical?) one, however; we both escaped without injury!! Another trip member boarding down the Mary Jane trail was downed by a rogue mogul, resulting in a fall striking another mogul and suffering a black eye. He was okay and finished out the week with good humor.

The accommodations at the Beaver Village Condos were very nice. Apres Ski opportunities were bountiful with many restaurants and pubs in town and at the ski resort base. A shuttle service was available to take us into town for our evening dining pleasure. The group celebrated New Year's Eve in one of the three condos where we (well, Marcia, Annette & Robin) made chili, salad, and Annette's famous cornbread. The evening included a fierce game of dominos led (and won) by Sam!!

Winter Park resort is a great bustling ski town and a challenging mountain for all snow ski/snowboard levels and a good return destination for the LSSC!

ABOUT VAL DI FASSA

The enchanting world of the Dolomites - ancient legends and myths characterise the famous pale mountains. Already some 40 million years ago those mountains were formed, which got their name from a limestone rock called dolomite.

And in between those mighty pale mountains lies the Fassa Valley, with a rich number of hiking trails taking you right to the heart of the beautiful natural scenery called Dolomites. The valley is characterised by the Avisio river and thanks to such famous mountains as the Sella Group or legendary Marmolada it is one of the most renowned Alpine valleys. Val di Fassa is by the way the only Trentino valley where the Ladin language is still spoken.

Winter turns Val di Fassa into a true skiing paradise. The ski areas of the valley are all part of the Dolomiti Superski area, the biggest association of ski areas all over the world. The lifts and gondolas are running even in summer which might come quite handy when embarking on long and challenging hikes across the mountains. Steeped in tradition, the valleys boast a very special flair. Enjoy true hospitality and get to know almost forgotten traditions and cultures...

THE SKI AREAS

9 ski areas - Marmolada/Pian dei Fiacconi, Alba/Ciampac; Canazei/Belvedere/Passo Pordoi; Campitello/Col Rodella/Passo Sella, Pozza di Fassa/Buffaure, Vigo di Fassa/Ciampedie, Passo Carezza, Moena/Lusia/Bellamonte, Passo San Pellegrino/Col Margherita/Falcade - 210 kilometres of pistes, 83 operating lifts.

Technical snow making guarantees more than 95% slope covering.

Links to the neighbouring ski areas, breath-taking views and a wide choice of refuges and places of refreshment for a 360° mountain experience.

Winter walks: many are the paths that, directly from every village of the valley, lead to peaceful sites that can be easily reached by walking, also during the winter season. All these excursions are described in our guide of low-level walks.

Snowshoe guided excursions: snowshoe walking, in woods and along mountain trails, guided by experts. Aimed at offering an alternative to ski, these excursions can be practised easily also by beginners.

Culture: The Ladin Museum offers, in the winter season as well, many opportunities to get in touch with the Ladin cultural heritage and traditions. For further information: www.istladin.net Interesting from an artistic point of view area also the churches and ancient buildings called “tobié” (the Ladin word for haylofts), typical buildings made of wood and stones, that can be found in the historical centre of every village.

Viewpoints: At the upstream stations of the lifts there are refuges where non-skiers can relax, sunbathe and enjoy the view of the landscape and Enrosadira, when the mountains turn to coral red at dusk.

Aquatic Center “Dòlaondes” and Wellness center “Eghes” in Canazei. The triumph of water! Here, together with the swimming pool, the Eghes wellness center provides relax, offering various facilities and body regeneration: Turkish bath, calidarium and tepidarium, sauna and hot whirl pools. ## UPCOMING ELECTIONS

It's almost time for elections to determine who will be our officers for the 2019-20 year!! We are always interested in new ideas and input for our Board and we are seeking nominations for all positions.

As I mentioned at our January meeting, if you are interested in serving on the Board or know someone who would be a great Board member, I invite you to submit your name or another member's name to the nominating committee. The committee will present the slate of candidates to the membership, before the April meeting, at which time members in good standing can vote for next year's Board members.

Please forward any nominations to me by February 15 if you wish to have them considered for election. Being a Board member does involve work, including a monthly Board meeting on the second Wednesday of each month. We review and decide on trips, activities, finances, and the direction we want for our club.

Hope to hear from you!!

Janet Graham Jones
President-Elect for 2019-20
