LSSC HALLOWEEN PARTY RECAP:

LSSC Social Chair, Linda Gorman, hosted an evening of dastardly delights at her home (and ghoulish garage) for Halloween.

Costumes were fun! Dan Geiger won first place as the coal company exec dressed up as a miner from recent political ad fame (Chandler v. Barr). My costume (not sure what it was, except sparkly!) won second place.

Here are a few pictures:

BEAVER CREEK, COLORADO: JANUARY 12 to JANUARY 19, 2013

Beaver Creek is a feast for the eyes, a delight for the senses. The influence of renowned resorts such as Switzerland's St. Moritz, Italy's Cortina, and Spain's Val d'Aran led to the creation of a unique mountain resort full of excitement and village luxury.

Originally designed to accommodate skiers of all abilities, Beaver Creek Mountain continues to welcome and challenge those who visit her slopes. From the gentle groomed runs of Strawberry Park to the rugged glades and bump runs of Grouse Mountain, Beaver Creek is enjoyed by all levels of skiers.

When George Townsend first settled in the valley in 1881, he knew he'd found something special - an exceptional mountain, lined with aspen groves and beautiful vistas that would become a world-renowned destination. In 1972, Vail Resorts continued his vision by purchasing the land and began designing a resort that combined Western hospitality and European charm. While obstacles delayed resort completion, Beaver Creek finally opened to the public December 15, 1980.

Major events have always found a home at Beaver Creek. The mountain was named as a potential site for the 1976 Winter Olympics. In 1989, the resort hosted the World Ski Championships. Beaver Creek will again host the World Championships in 2015.

There are 4 mountains - Beaver Creek, Grouse Mountain, Larkspur Bowl, and Arrowhead Mountain.

Vertical: 4,140 ft
 Top elevation: 11,440 ft
 Base elevation: 8,150 ft

CHECK OUT THE EPIC LOCAL PASS FOR BC & TAHOE!

If you are going to participate on both the Beaver Creek and the Lake Tahoe trips, you might want to consider purchasing the Epic Local Pass. The cost is $509, or $44 less expensive than the combined lift tickets for the two trips, plus you will have included additional ski days at these Vail Resorts. If you purchase an Epic Local Pass (or Epic Pass if you plan to ski even more) let your trip leaders know so that you do not purchase lift tickets as part of your LSSC trip. Trip prices will be reduced accordingly.
